

ARTBEAT 2023 ARTIST APPLICATION

Exhibition Artist / Artist-in-Action / Interactive Artist
October 6th - October 7th, 2023

*Please make a check in the space next to all you are interested in doing for this event.
(Depending on availability, it is possible to participate as more than one type of artist.)*

Exhibiting Artist:

Apply to partner with a local downtown business to show your work during the event. Work must be ready to hang, and installation is a coordinated effort between the artist and the local business owner. Exhibiting artists are allowed to sell their artwork during the event but must be present or have a representative available to handle sales.

Artist-in-action:

Apply to partner with a local downtown business to feature your process during the event. Please submit a description of your process along with your application packet. Artists-in-Action are allowed to sell their artwork during the event, but we encourage you to bring an assistant to help with sales while you complete your work.

Interactive Artist:

Have an art experience to share with a class? Sign up to teach a class during art beat. Please submit a description of your process, the cost to participants, and the age range your class would be directed toward along with your application packet. (Interactive Artists positions will be limited in number, if you are interested in being an Exhibiting Artist or Artist in Action, please check both. Interactive Artists are allowed to sell their artwork during the event, but we encourage you to bring an assistant to help with sales while you teach your class.
